LICENSE APPLICATION

Attntion Individual/Sole Proprietorships:

HB 1023 requires the Department to verify the lawful presence in the U.S. of all individuals and sole proprietors prior to issuing the aforementioned license. We will need the following additional documentation from you in order to renew your license or to issue you a new license:

- 1. A valid Colorado Driver's license or a Colorado identification card; or
- 2. A United States military card or a military dependent's identification card; or
- 3. A United States Coast Guard Mercant Mariner card; or
- 4. A Native American Tribal document;

And an affidavit stating that:

- 1. Your are a United States citizen; or
- 2. A legal permanent resident; or
- 3. You are otherwise lawfully present in the United States persuant to federal law.

Some individuals residing outside of the State of Colorado may not have any of the identification documents listed above. Therefore, the Colorado Department of Revenue has adopted emergency rules, effective until March 1, 2007, that allows such persons to use one of the following alternative forms of identification:

- 1. A certificate verifying naturalized status issued by an authorized agency of the United States bearing Applicant's intact photograph impressed with the raised embossed seal of the issuing agency:
- 2. A certificate verfying natualized status issued by an authorized agency of the United States bearing Applicant's intact photograph impressed with the raised embossed seal of the issuing agency (such as a passport);
- 3. A valid driver's license or identification card bearing an applicant's photograph issued by one of the following states: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Deleware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia, West Virginia or Wyoming.

Ο..

4. Valid immigration documents demonstrating lawful presence and verified through the Systematic Alien Verificcation for Entitlements Program (SAVE) administered by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security.

If any of these alternative documents are used for verification, they must either be presented in person or a notarized copy of the document must be submitted to the Colorado Department of Agriculture.

Under the Department of Revenue rules, individuals who do not have one of the alternative identification documents listed above will need to first obtain an Electronic Identification Number ("EII") from the Division of Motor Vehicles ("DMV") before applying for a Farm Products Dealer license from the Department of Agriculture. To obtain an EII, an individual must apply in person at one of the Colorado Driver's license offices listed below by submitting a completed Request for Waiver form and the affidavit required by HB 1023, along with any available supporting documentation that verifies his/her name and lawful presence. Once the individual has obtained an EII form DMV s/he can then apply to the Department of Agriculture for issuance or renewal of a license by submiting another signed affidavit and providing his/her EII number, along with this application.

The following cities and towns have Colorado Driver's License offices that can issue an EII: Alamosa, Denver (Athmar), Aurora, Boulder, Canon City, Colorado Springs, Cortez, Craig, Delta, Durango, Fort Collins, Fort Morgan, Frisco, Glenwood Springs, Grand Junction, Greeley, Gunnison, La Junta, Lamar, Longmont, Meeker, Montrose, Northglenn, Parker, Pueblo, Rangely, Salida, Steamboat Springs, Sterling, Trinidad and Walsenburg.
